

AMONG THE EXCHANGES OF THE INLAND EMPIRE

From Baker to Eagle Valley. L. Vinson, the promoter and surveyor of the first survey, began retracing the first survey of the route to Baker City, yesterday. The survey was made in 1891, and the route was the same as the present one. The survey was made in 1891, and the route was the same as the present one. The survey was made in 1891, and the route was the same as the present one.

Mr. Stewart went to Portland last Monday and engaged the best papers, dancers and singers for the occasion, who are the best artists in their several lines obtainable.

This will be the greatest event in the club's history, and by far the best entertainment ever given by this deservedly popular club. Combining experience with a free use of money in procuring talent of the highest order, it goes without saying that the public will be invited to witness a program in every respect satisfactory, and which will further enhance the reputation of the Scottish people and the Fossil Caledonian Club as entertainers.

Farmers' Phone Line.

The farmers' independent telephone line was completed into town this week, and 'phones installed in several of the business houses. The instruments are first-class and are nicely finished.

This line has been in successful operation among the farmers in the vicinity of Haines and Rock Creek for some time, and now that it is connected with the town will prove a greater convenience. There are now about 30 subscribers and when the line is completed it is thought the number will exceed 40.—Haines Record.

Fight With Bear.

With his left leg and three ribs broken, besides being terribly cut and bruised, as the result of a thrilling encounter with a huge brown bear, Frank Willard, a prospector who lives in a little hut at the foot of Mendenhall glacier, about 15 miles north of Juneau, Alaska, virtually dragged himself 10 miles over the roughest kind of country, from the place where he encountered the animal, to the camp of the Mansfield Mining Company on McGinnis creek.—Seattle Star.
